Properties of the double-exchange model in the Composite Operator Method

Maciej Bąk, Ferdinando Mancini

Dipartimento di Fisica "E.R. Caianiello" - Unità INFM di Salerno
Università degli Studi di Salerno, I-84081 Baronissi (SA), Italy

We examine the ferromagnetic properties of the double-exchange model using Composite Operator Method. Starting from the basis operators, which give exact results in the atomic limit, by means of equations of motion technique we obtain a set of self constistent equations. The presented results concern the phase diagram and local quantities. Comparison with experimental results of manganite materials is done.